Dedication

To Mrs. Olson whose life before God has been a blessing to all, we dedicate this '62 Optic. Mrs. Olson joined the B. B. I. staff in 1957. Her consecrated life to God has been a challenge to all who have come in contact with her, whether in her home, on campus, or in the laundry department. Her life has been an example of what God can do through an individual yielded to Him.

Through this dedication we wish to express our appreciation to Mrs. Olson.

CHAPTER 1

That in every thing ye are enriched knowledge . . . Redeeming the time a vapour that appeareth for a little

Foreword

*Teach me thy ways, Oh Lord
To know and perform thy will,
To reach that unreached soul for thee,
Thus thy plan fulfill.*

*Life — a vapour yet a plan,
God's plan for me,
Praying, striving, winning, labouring,
In him immortality.*

Presidents Message

Like Israel in the days of Josiah, our world needs in these days to re-discover the Word of God. Not that God's Word is lost in the house of worship as it was in Josiah's day, but it is often so covered by such things as the programs and materialism of the day that saint and sinner alike fail to grasp the vital message it has for them. The whole world, and we as God's people no less, need to turn to the Word of God for direction and comfort in these uncertain times.

May the Bible Institutes continue to be as a contrary wind, driving back the dust and decay that would cover God's Word and hold it forth in these days of increasing tumult, sin and distress that its message may reach all men everywhere.

Memoriam

MR. R. ARGUE

"The Memory of the Just is Blessed". Prov. 10:7

Born in Ontario, and settling with his parents in the early years as pioneers in the Grenfell district of Saskatchewan, Mr. Reginald Argue came to know the Saviour well on in life. Through his active interest in Christian work he met Miss Ethel Thulien. Soon there was that "embarrassing, yet delightful collision of eyes", a friendship, a wedding and another Christian home was born. The Lord was good to Reg and Ethel and favoured them with two sons and a daughter.

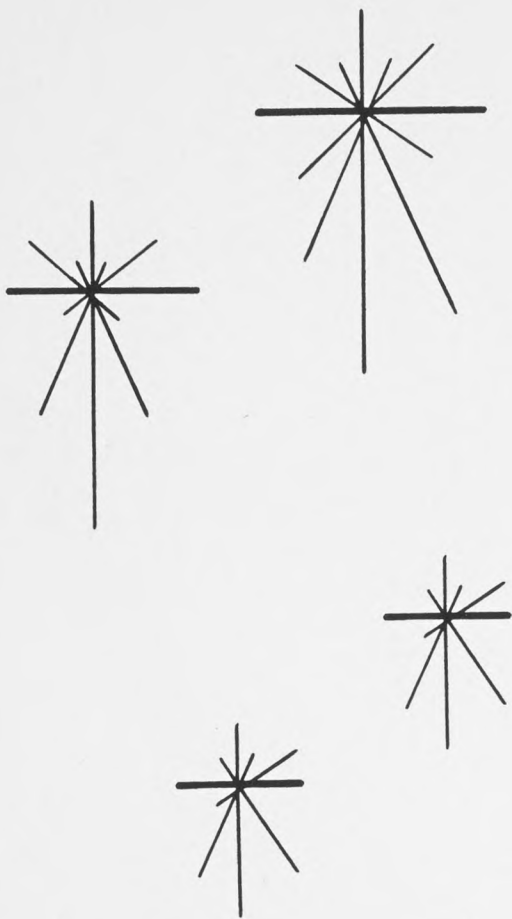

The Argues were introduced to B.B.I. through its broadcasts. We met him at the dedication of Caronport campus in 1946. More visits followed and then that certain guidance of the "still small voice" brought them to Caronport in 1950. As assistant to the foreman, Mr. Argue gave his undivided attention in carpentry and general responsibility as a service rendered unto the Lord. Never too tired to do more than a day's heavy work, and never concerned about overtime Mr. Argue made his contribution to the cause of Christ until he was promoted to higher service on Sunday, August 20th.

As a son of pioneers he manifested the unselfish and devoted qualities that have built this country. As a Christian he grew in grace and mellowed with the years so that strength, drive, and faithfulness mingles to reflect the image of Christ as he built for a heavenly country. Mr. Argue's memory therefore as "the memory of the just is blessed".

Fellow Students

Throughout this year as we have sat at the feet of Jesus under dedicated teachers, we acknowledge that God has been preparing each of us, Bible School as well as High School students, for those future things which lie in store. As students here at B.B.I. we have enjoyed a blessed time of fellowship with God through studies, sports and practical work.

In God's Word we find that Zacchaeus sought to see Jesus. But being small of stature it was necessary for him to climb up into a tree to see the Saviour. (Luke 19:1-10) As students we might liken ourselves to that tree, through our dedicated lives enabling the world to see Jesus, whether in secular work or in the ministry.

Let us remember through God's Word the importance of a soul. Mark 8:37 "Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" God has a definite purpose for bringing each of us to B.B.I., and also God has a definite purpose for us in life. I trust as our time terminates at Caronport, we will leave to fill that place in the plan which God has for us in life.

Memoriam

ISAAC HILDEBRANDT

"And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season." Ps. 1:3b

This verse depicts the life Ike lived before his fellow-students while studying at B. B. I. A member of the '61 class, he received his promotion when he went to be with the Lord on Wednesday, May 31, 1961.

As we viewed his life in practical work and in his home church, we can say that his life "brought forth fruit in his season".

Having studied of the place which God has prepared for us, we look forward to meeting Ike, a classmate, in this place which our Lord has prepared for His own.
